Description:

Mt. Aetna Adventist School is supported by 4 thriving SDA churches, all of which support the school financially and spiritually. In addition to school support these churches also provide direct tuition support for many of the children of their confirmed members. If you are a member in good standing and are in need of tuition assistance, please contact your local pastor before the end of the current school year. Generally, it is too late to apply for help in the fall but even so it doesn't hurt to ask.
